

Worksheet 181 – All the ways to sell your business

It's time to sell your business!

This is a really exciting time but it can also be hugely stressful.

Today on the show we discuss three different ways you can sell your business.

Remember that every day you spend running your business you should be thinking about selling your business.

Having that end goal in mind will give you a tremendous amount of clarity in your daily decision making.

Get your info right

The first step in this process is all about gathering information.

You need to know everything about your business.

Profit and loss, assets and liabilities need to be clearly understood.

You need to have an excellent record of your cash flow and balance sheets.

You also need to have a clear projections of where the business is headed in the near future.

Write down a short plan for getting all the together all the information you need for a sale.
